LITTLE EVIDENCE YET TO BE TAKEN

End Finally in Sight in Ballinger-Pinchot Hearing.

Washington, D. C., May 19.—The Ballinger-Pinchot investigation is likely to end to-morrow so far, at least, as the taking of evidence is concerned.

The "defense" practically had rested when the day's hearing ended, and Attorney Brandeis, for the "prosecution," was quoted as having said that his side would consume but little time in the examination of witnesses in rebuttal. Attorney Vertrees, counsel for the Ballinger "defense," will call one or two more witnesses to-morrow, but expects their contributions to be brief.

Both sides to-day appeared anxious to wind up the investigation, of which all parties have become well wearied. In the furtherance of this desire, they have decided to dispense with a number of witnesses they had expected to call.

In contrast with the lively and at times sensational interchanges of recent sessions of the investigating committee, to-day's session was dull and uninteresting. Mr. Brandeis concluded his cross-examination of Oscar Lawler, Assistant Attorney-General for the Interior Department, and author of the now famous tentative draft for the President of a letter discussing and dismissing both Special Agents L. R. Glavis and his charges against Secretary Ballinger. Commissioner Frank Dennet, of the General Land Office, also finished his testimony. E. T. Perkins, of the Chicago office of the Reclamation Service, was the last witness of the day.

Important Admission. What was regarded by the "prosecution" as an important admission was obtained from Lawler. Brandeis was endeavoring to show that Lawler entertained an old grudge against Glavis which unfitted him for the preparation of the judicial finding to assist the President in passing upon the Glavis charges.

He was questioning Lawler along that line when the latter unexpectedly volunteered the allegation that Glavis had "demonstrated" himself to be untruthful. This he said, was three years ago, when Glavis had made complaint to the land office that Lawler was incompetent to conduct the government's prosecution of certain land fraud cases in Southern California.

Lawler was the United States District Attorney for the Southern District of California, and Glavis was Chief of Field Division at Oakland. Lawler said the charges were investigated by the Department of Justice and were found baseless. He went to trial with the cases and obtained convictions.

An attempt by Brandeis to obtain the production of all papers and documents relating to this matter on file in the general land office, was blocked by the committee as involving a collateral investigation. Brandeis said he desired to show whether Secretary Ballinger knew Lawler entertained such a grievance against Glavis.

In cross-examination of Dennet, the fact was brought out that the Interior Department had employed two of its special agents on "detective work" in an effort to connect forest service officials with the preparation of Glavis' affidavit and to trace the motives of other critics of the department.

To Make Him the "Goat." A conversation Perkins claimed to have had in Chicago on October 23 last with F. H. Newell, director of the reclamation service, whom it has been alleged Secretary Ballinger intended to supplant with R. H. Thompson, of Seattle, was the most interesting feature of Perkins' testimony. Perkins declared it was as follows:

"You should not try to vindicate Ballinger in the 'black tent' matter," said Newell. "I want to make Ballinger the 'goat.'"

"You can't do it," replied Perkins. "He's too big a man." "Never mind," replied Newell. "I am going to do it anyhow." Perkins told of attending, at the request of Clifford Pinchot, a conference at the house of Ex-Secretary Garfield.

In West Mentor, Ohio, on July 8. He said that Pinchot, Garfield and Thomas R. Shipp, of the Conservation Society, were present at the conference, the purpose of which was to insure the retention of Newell in office. Perkins said he had promised to work for Newell, and had done so to the extent of inducing a number of railroad officials to write to Ballinger in Newell's behalf.

Attorney Vertrees introduced a number of letters and telegrams written by Shipp and Garfield regarding a trip "our friend" (who Perkins said was Pinchot) was to make to Washington to see Newell. The evident purpose of the "defense" was to show, through the testimony of Perkins and these documents, that the conspiracy which the "defense" charges exists against Ballinger had its beginning at the home of Garfield, and that Pinchot came to Washington to try to induce Newell and other subordinates of Ballinger to participate in it.

RACE QUESTION CAUSING WORRY

Both the Alabama and Georgia delegations as to delegates will be filled, while there will also be many visitors from these states. A number of Alabamians and Georgians who attended the Southern Baptist Convention at Baltimore, have gone by Washington for the Sunday school convention, while others have preceded this regular party.

The convention is to be the greatest gathering of Sunday school workers in the history of the world, and the program includes the leaders in the work from every country and clime. Among the prominent public men to address the convention are President Taft and Ambassador James Bryce, of Great Britain.

ALUMNI WILL HOLD ANNUAL SESSION

Luncheon Prepared for University Men at Lakeside Park To-Morrow.

Local alumni of the University of Virginia will have their annual meeting at Lakeside Park to-morrow afternoon. The affair will include a reunion and a dinner, which all alumni of the university, whether members of the association or not, are not only invited but are urged to attend.

It is planned to make this the most important and pleasurable meeting held in Richmond by the former students of Virginia's great school. All arrangements have been completed. The interest in the gathering is evidenced by the fact that three members of the faculty will come from the university to be present. Some of the alumni from points outside of Richmond will attend.

In its efforts to make the occasion thoroughly enjoyable, the committee in charge has provided an informal luncheon.

A special car will be run on the Richmond and Chesapeake Bayway at 1:35 from Laurel and Broad Streets. This will be in addition to the regular schedule.

The hours will be from 2 to 6 o'clock. Tickets can be had by notifying Robert N. Pollard or Stuart G. Christian, and every alumnus who desires to attend is asked to notify one of these so that the committee in charge may know the number to expect, and that tickets may be held for those who will be present.

FLOYD TRIAL TO-DAY

Boy Who Stabbed Negro With Pocket Knife Claims It Was Accidental.

The case of Garret Floyd, a white boy, who stabbed Sherman Taliaferro last week with a pocket knife, will be heard before Judge T. C. Morris to-day at noon. Floyd is now out on bail in the sum of $1,000.

It is claimed by the boy that the slaying was accidental and that he had no intention of inflicting injury on the negro. He will be represented by L. O. Wendenburg.

Visitors Win Opening Game.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch] Anderson, S. C., May 19.—Although Mangum outpitched Smith in the first game of the series between Anderson and Greenville, the visitors, aided by the errors of the locals, won the contest, 2 to 0. The big feature of the contest was the batting of Manager Kelly.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch] Exciting Game at Charlotte.

Charlotte, N. C., May 19.—In the most exciting game of the present season Charlotte this afternoon defeated Greenville by a score of 2 to 2. Errors on the part of Garman and Bauswine allowed the visitors to score one run each in the first and second innings, but after this they could do nothing. Bauswine was especially strong in the pinches, and his strong hitting several times saved the game for the locals. Noonlin made a spectacular catch of a long drive from Humphrey's bat that looked good for a home run.

Detroit Will Hold Beckendorf.

Detroit, Mich., May 19.—Because St. Louis refused to waive on Catcher Beckendorf, the latter will be retained by the Detroit American League Club. The several clubs who had bid for him to Montreal on terms under which he could be recalled to Detroit when needed.

HORSE SHOW CLOSES.

Annual Sporting Event at Greenville Most Successful Ever Held.

Greenville, S. C., May 19.—With the finest list of entries, numbering over 300, and with a record-breaking attendance, Greenville's fourth annual horse show closed this afternoon. Many of the entries at the local show will be taken to Spartanburg next week for a similar event there Tuesday and Wednesday.

The only accident of the two days' performance happened this afternoon, when J. P. Oglesby, of Atlanta, driving a Glennmar, in class eight, was thrown from his vehicle and probably seriously hurt. Quick examination showed him to have sustained injuries amounting to a broken rib and a number of painful bruises. He was rushed from the grounds to a hospital.

Winners in to-day's events were owned by H. T. Mills, Greenville; J. K. Otley, Atlanta; W. A. McBrayer, Greenville; R. M. Gifford, Atlanta; H. T. Mills, of Greenville, won the bankers' cup, costing $250.

EASY VICTORY FOR TRUCKERS

Shoemakers Fail to Support Pitcher and Lose by 6 to 1 Score.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch] Norfolk, Va., May 19.—Giving their twirlers better support, and hitting the ball often and hard, the Truckers had no difficulty in defeating the Shoemakers this afternoon by the score of 6 to 1. Levy, the man who had been doing excellent work for the visitors, was found easily in the opening inning, and his team was not behind him as it should have been. In the fourth and fifth, he was reached again for one run and two runs respectively.

The only run of the Shoemakers came in the second inning, and resulted in Welch being promptly sent in to relieve Foxen. At no time was Welch found.

AMUSEMENTS.

Academy—Benjamin Players in "Polly Primrose."

Playing to Capacity Houses.

"Polly Primrose" has proven to be the best paying offering which the Benjamin Players have yet put on, and on several nights the house has been sold out, as was the case last night. This play, with its intense interest of plot and its delightful comedy, has shown itself to be a winner. Miss Catharine Carter is more beautiful and winsome than ever in "Polly Primrose." Miss Lydia Knott appears as Caroline, the old-time colored nanny, in such a splendid make-up that it is hard to tell her from an original, and Mr. Ritchie is seen in the strong role of Hugh Carlisle, the Northern soldier. "Polly Primrose" will be seen at the Academy to-night and to-morrow matinee and night.

Next week's offering of the Benjamin Players will be "Merely Mary Ann," which brought fame to Miss Eleanor Robson.

ROADS BEING PUT IN ORDER

Secretary Alfriend Urges Prompt Decision of Virginia Protest.

Club, wired S. M. Butler, chairman of the contest board of the A. A. A., requesting that a decision be reached at once regarding the protests filed against certain awards made in the Virginia endurance run. As soon as Mr. Butler has forwarded his decision regarding the protests the eight cups offered as prizes in the Virginia run will be distributed.

That motor car owners are pleased with the route laid out for the North Carolina run is evidenced by the fact that a larger number of cars will be entered for the North Carolina run than were entered in the Virginia run. The entry blanks will be found in this number of The Times-Dispatch. Entries close at midnight on Saturday, May 28.

WANT FIGHT PREVENTED.

Church Federation of San Francisco Leads in Effort.

San Francisco, Cal., May 19.—That a determined effort will be made to prevent the holding of the Jefferson Johnson fight in this city was made apparent to-day, when within a few hours after the definite announcement had been made that the match would be brought to this side of the bay, a delegation of the local Church Federation, accompanied by its attorney, called upon District Attorney Fleckert and demanded that he take action to stop the proposed bout. Fleckert, after declaring that he had not had time to investigate the law governing boxing contests in this city, told the delegation that to-morrow morning he would render a definite decision as to the legality of the proposed championship battle.

Johnson Much Pleased.

San Francisco, May 19.—When it was learned in Jack Johnson's camp to-day that the decision to bring the fight to this side of the bay had been definitely announced, Johnson was much pleased. He said he would be able to fight better in this city as the climatic conditions would be like those of his training camp. Johnson did not feel any ill effects from the strenuous nine rounds of boxing which he did yesterday, and he set a fast pace on the road.
